

2021-22 legal literacy cell

On December 17 20 21 as per the instructions of district election office Hisar on the occasion of 12th National voters day essay writing mehndi application rangoli making and speech competition was organised in the college on the topic use of technology in easy elections.

As per the instruction of SVEEP action plan 2021-2022 district level online speech Rangoli mehndi essay writing competition was organised in the college to create awareness among the voters and ensure their participation in the election in which student of various college of the district participated Sarita Jangra stood first in speech competition and Chelsea Singh stood first in rangoli making competition honoured with the cash prizes by the deputy commissioner Hisar on national voters day 25th January 2022.

As per the instruction of Indian election commission online competition on video making poster making song slogan writing quiz contest are organised in online mode.

Whose theme was theme was my vote is my future power of one vote many college students ensure their participation by registration on the election commission of India website.