

2022-23

Legal literacy cell

On December 6th 2022 essay writing speech competition and rangoli making competition was organised by legal literacy cell of college. In essay writing competition Nandini got first prize Preeti God second and Kashish got third prize. In speech competition Bhartiya secure first position Riya Gautam secured second and Vanshika secure third position. In rangoli making competition Simran took first position Anshika took second and Chelsi took third position.

District level various competition organised by legal redressive cell of Government College Hisar on 19 December 2022. In these competition Simran of our college stood first in rangoli making and Anshika secure third position. Bharti secured second position in speech competition. Kashish took second position in essay writing competition.

On the occasion of 13th National voters day on January 25th 2023 was celebrated by legal rated seashell of our college in the program principal Dr Anita Sherawat hardly welcomed additional deputy commissioner Mr Neeraj , City magistrate Mrs Vijaya Malik and election tehsildar Jagdeep Maan. Deputy commissioner Mr Neeraj administered the voters oath to the students of our college cash prizes were distributed to the winners of district level competition winners. On this occasion Indian election commission launched a song Bharat hoon main Bharat hai mujh mein.

On 3rd February 2023 legal literacy cell of our college organise essay writing poster making and slogan writing competition under student legal literacy mission. In essay writing competition Kashish secured first position she we got second and ponica got third position. Slogan writing competition Shivani took first place muskan took second and Princy to third place. In poster making competition Sanju secured first position Niharika secured second position and Pragati got third position.

As per the instructions of DHE student legal literacy mission 2022-23 government post graduation college Hisar organised different competitions. In PowerPoint presentation competition Shivani secured third position in speech competition Bharati secure second position and in slogan writing competition Ganesha secure second position.